ENTENTE

Note in Reply to Germany's Peace Proposal Ready for Delivery

WILL ASK REPARATION

It Will Suggest That Berlin Must Give Guarantees to Keep Future Treaties, Inasmuch As Cabinet Proclaimed Contempt of Old Contracts—Central Government Responsible

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Dec. 30.—The allies answer to the German note of Dec. 12, will be handed to Ambassador Sharp tonight, says the Petit Parisien and published tomorrow. It is long and sets forth again the responsibility of the central empire for the European conflagration. It insists on legitimate reparations and restitutions demanded by the entente as outlined by Premier Lloyd George and also says that Germany by failing to formulate proposals for peace, removes in advance any basis for parleys. The note seeks to suggest that the Berlin cabinet having proclaimed in 1914 its contempt for treaties, cannot pretend to obtain the same conditions as powers respectful of signature, and must offer guarantees.

SECOND PEACE NOTE.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Dec. 29, via London, Dec. 30.—It has been learned that a few days ago President Wilson sent a second note, explanatory of the first, to the Central Powers and the entente nations. This note has not been presented.

The reason for the withholding of the second note is said to be that the German reply, received in the interim, showed that the German government had not been influenced by the "misconceptions regarding the purpose and aims of President Wilson's step which an unfriendly press in both camps attributed thereto."

WON'T CONFIRM REPORT.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Dec. 30.—Secretary Lansing refused to comment in any way on the report that a second explanatory note had been sent both to the central powers and the entente allies to correct misinterpretations of the president's note calling for peace terms. He indicated that under the recent policy of silence adopted by President Wilson and himself in the peace negotiations he would make no statement either affirming or denying such reports. It is felt that much misunderstanding might arise in the popular mind, but it is held that the various governments addressed will be influenced only by the official information which will be quite complete.

Other sources, however, said they were sure no second note had been sent and that the Berlin dispatches referred to the two statements by Secretary Lansing issued the day after the dispatch of the original note was announced.

Secretary Lansing also refused to indicate whether he thought the Berlin report might have arisen out of the sending abroad for the information of American diplomats of his two statements authorized the day the note was published. It is known that these statements were transmitted to the American diplomats to acquaint them fully with what had taken place here but that they were instructed to present them to the various foreign offices.

Secretary Lansing has been most emphatic ever since his two statements were issued in saying that the president's note was absolutely self-explanatory and required no further comment. He has stated also that no special instructions were sent to the American diplomats as to the manner of presenting the note. Imimations that the misunderstandings abroad, particularly in the public mind, might be dispelled by official statements from the president have been said that no matter what the public misunderstandings just at present, this situation would eventually clear of itself and must be suffered as part of the results of keeping the negotiations absolutely confidential.

FOOD SYSTEM IN GERMANY FAILS; ASKS CO-OPERATION

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Dec. 29, via London, Dec. 30.—Adolf von Batzki, president of the food regulation board, assigns as reasons for the failure of the system of maximum prices without expropriation of supplies, the fact that producers either consume supplies themselves or sell to consumers in their vicinity, making it impossible for the remote consumers in the cities to obtain sufficient supplies. Herr Batzki urges the cities to co-operate with the imperial authorities so as to avoid competition by the municipalities in the contracting for supplies. He says that even where a graduated scale of maximum prices has been fixed to compensate for differences in location the system has failed to secure a equitable distribution. This is due to the fact that consumers find ways of buying what ever surplus the producers have.

WEEPS LIKE BABY AT PLACE WHERE WIFE WAS SLAIN

Frederick L. Small.

Frederick L. Small, of Ossipee, N. H., wept like a baby when he was taken with the jury to the spot where his wife was slain last September. Small is on trial for his life. It is charged that he killed his wife by strangulation and then fired his house by a time device, which set the blaze after he arrived in Boston. He hopes to prove that his wife was killed by a tramp.

GERMANS TOLD THAT WILSON IS NOT MERE PUPPET

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Dec. 29, via London, Dec. 30.—Dr. Paul Nathan, well known in America as the secretary of the German Jewish Aid society, in an article in Der Tag, warns the Germans against the view that President Wilson is a mere puppet pulled by British wires. The article, which is a good example of moderate German views, is based on the assumption that President Wilson is pursuing a policy dictated solely by practical American interests and in the interest of a people who are exceedingly proud of their independence and national characteristics.

"So much power attaches to the presidency," writes Dr. Nathan, "that even a weak president would hardly become dependent upon a foreign country. But President Wilson is by no means a weak character. On the contrary he is hard to deceive and Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg's speech shows that the ultimate aims of American and German policy have drawn substantially nearer and it does not lie in German interests to ignore that fact and render impossible further developments in this direction through unjust attacks."

President Wilson and Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg do not say the same thing and yet their utterances are similar, whereas President Wilson's note and Premier Lloyd George speech present a hopeless dissonance. Germans are entitled to strongly emphasize the fact that German policies and the policies of the mightiest neutral states are in irreconcilable conflict.

Destroyer Saved British Steamer From Submarine

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Dec. 30.—The British freight steamer Chicago City, from Bristol, England, Dec. 11, was fired upon and stopped by a German submarine on Dec. 14, when about 150 miles off Eastnet, according to a report of the crew on her arrival here today.

The Chicago City was saved from being sunk by the timely appearance of a British destroyer attacked by the firing. Two shots were fired by the submarine, the man said.

Captain Crinks stopped the vessel, an 8th men were getting into the lifeboats when the destroyer hove in sight.

The submarine is described as being of a new type more than 200 feet long and painted dark black. Two guns were seen mounted on her deck. It was evident she was maneuvering into a position from which to discharge a torpedo when the destroyer was seen, the crew said, and immediately sank from sight.

The crew of the Chicago City went back aboard their vessel and continued their voyage.

Acting under recent orders of the British admiralty officers of the ship refused to discuss the incident.

Seat On Pittsburgh Stock Exchange Sells For Five Thousand

(Associated Press Telegram)
Pittsburgh, Dec. 30.—Seats on the Pittsburgh stock exchange have reached a valuation of $5,000. The announcement of the sale of a seat at that price, the highest with one exception in 10 years, has been made. The last sale of a seat was at $3,500 several weeks ago. Since that time the value of the 120 seats have increased $325,000 to a total value of $600,000.

HATFIELD

Takes Hand in G. O. P. Controversy Over Floor Leadership in Legislature

Reighard Has Support of Cincinnati Delegation and Others Oppose Him For That Reason—Candidates Are Called Into Conference By State Chairman Hatfield to Reach Terms

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Dec. 30.—With Republican legislators in a wrangle over who should be their floor leader in the Eighty-second Ohio General Assembly, which convenes next Monday, Republican State Chairman Hatfield took a hand in the controversy here today.

Frank Reighard of Fulton county, present chairman of the house finance committee, Rupert Beetham of Cadiz, J. A. Mansfield of Steubenville, Dr. L. F. Cain of Noble county, A. O. Fleming of Mahoning county, and William P. Ellis of Geauga county, all avowed candidates for minority floor leader were called into a conference by Hatfield at noon in the hope that they might agree upon some one man.

Reighard, regarded as the strongest candidate, met strong opposition today. Many of the members expressed opposition to him because the Cincinnati delegation of 10 members had agreed in advance of the caucus to support him. Representative Ferdman of Hamilton county said the Cincinnati delegation would stand by Reighard until they were released of their promise.

Dr. W. S. Hoy of Jackson county, Frank C. Parrett of Fayette county, respectively candidates for the leadership, invited but did not attend the Hatfield conference.

Democratic legislators were said to have their contests for minor positions in the house in the senate smoothed out this afternoon.

The Democratic organization was said to be lined up behind William Ross of Kenton for sergeant-at-arms of the house and indicators pointed to his election over J. H. Lowry of Capeon. T. F. McElroy, former mayor of Ottawa was slated for sergeant-at-arms of the senate. The selection of stenographers and other help in the general assembly will probably be left to a committee.

In advance of the Democratic house caucus set for 2 o'clock this afternoon it looked like a fight to the finish for sergeant-at-arms between J. H. Lowry of Henry county and William Bess of Kenton. Martin Kane, of Cleveland is slated for first assistant sergeant at arms of the house. W. F. Corcoran of Toledo for second assistant, and W. J. Aheranthy of Columbus for third assistant.

Democratic house members, will name E. J. Hoppie of Cleveland for speaker and John Cassidy of Bellefontaine for clerk. Democratic members of the senate do not caucus until tonight. J. H. Miller of Newark is slated for president pro tem of the senate and W. S. Pealer of Mansfield for clerk. Pealer will have opposition. T. F. McElroy of Ottawa is said to be leading in the race for senate sergeant at arms.

STEAMER MISSING; MARINE INSURANCE RATES INCREASED

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Dec. 30.—Marine insurance rates today showed another increase. Underwriters quoted a rate of eight per cent for insuring cargoes bound to ports of the United Kingdom and 10 per cent to Mediterranean ports. A few days ago these rates stood at five to eight per cent.

The advance was attributed to reports that the Lyport and Holt freighter, long overdue had been captured by a German prize crew and was proving on allied freighters in the north Atlantic and to the fact that several trans-Atlantic steamers are now overdue on both sides of the ocean.

WHEAT ADVANCES SHARPLY AT END OF YEAR'S TRADING

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, Dec. 30.—Year end evening up of trades in wheat caused an unusually sharp advance today of the December option. Shorts who had waited until the last hours in which deliveries could be made on contracts for the current month paid dearly for the privilege.

In some cases, bidders found it necessary to offer seven cents a bushel more than yesterday's final quotations, and thus lifted the December price to $1.50. The volume of such transactions, however, was not large.

IN WAR PAINT AND FEATHERS INDIANS LEAVE FOR THE FRONT

Regiment of Canadian Indians on their way to the western battle front.

This picture was taken in Glasgow, Scotland, two weeks ago, and it is not unlikely that by this time the Germans have heard the wild whoops of these Canadian Indians as they rushed to the attack. The regiment was one which was recruited about a year ago from the Six Nations reserve, southern Ontario, and from districts near Montreal. The regiment was in training in a camp on the outskirts of Glasgow.

CHARTER

COMMISSIONERS ARE NOMINATED BY CITIZENS EFFICIENT GOVERNMENT LEAGUE.

Nominees Represent Every Shade of Political and Religious Belief—Others May Be Nominated.

Fifteen men were nominated by the Citizens Efficient government League, Friday evening, as its candidates for members of the commission to draw up a charter for a city government for Newark, which commission will be chosen at a special election to be held March 13, at which time the city will be decided whether or not a charter or commission form of government shall be adopted.

Any other organization can make nominations or any qualified elector may individually become a candidate for membership upon the commission.

The meeting of the league was held in the convention room of the court house President Edward Kibler, Sr., presiding.

The fifteen men nominated represent every shade of religious belief, and policy of municipal government. There are six Democrats, five Republicans, one Socialist, and three unaffiliated. There are three business men, three professional men, one insurance man, one manufacturer, one capitalist, and the superintendent of public schools.

The following are the men who were named: Edward Kibler, Sr., A. A. Stasel, Rodolphe Jones, attorneys; E. T. Johnson, insurance; Wilson Hawkins, superintendent of schools; P. W. Jones, manager Buckeye Rolling Mill; Fred Rail, foreman American Bottle Co.; John M. Mitchell, clothier; William E. Miller, hardware dealer; W. H. Smith, lumber merchant; John McVicker, B. & O. engineer; Walter C. Metz, president Newark Trust Company; Ed Street, molder; S. O. Rizes, foreman Postal Printing Company; Ed L. Schmitt, B. & O. Switchman.

BLAST FURNACES BANK FIRES; COKE SUPPLY FAILING

(Associated Press Telegram)
Pittsburgh, Dec. 30.—The iron and steel industry in the Pittsburgh region is suffering with increased severity on account of a lack of coke due to car shortage, according to officials of the leading plants. The number of blast furnaces that have been banked has grown from the few reported last week to a total of between 30 and 40. The banking of these furnaces has reduced the pig iron production by about 20,000 tons, or nearly 20 per cent of the rate of production in the past two months. Shipments of coke during the week into the Pittsburgh region are estimated at 300,000 tons, whereas the amount necessary to maintain furnaces in full operation is 425,000 tons.

AUTO SHOW OPENS IN CLEVELAND; FIRST OF THE NEW SEASON

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, Dec. 30.—The first automobile show of the season opened at the Coliseum here this morning and will continue for one week, closing January 6. It is the sixteenth annual show held in Cleveland and promises to be the most successful exhibition held in the city. Thirty-five hundred dealers throughout Ohio have been invited and it is expected many more will attend. Two hundred and fifty cars of present year make-up will be exhibited. A comprehensive accessories department is also displayed.

THE WEATHER

Forecast For Week Beginning December 31.

(Issued by U. S. Weather Bureau)

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Dec. 30.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Sunday, issued by the weather bureau today include:

Ohio valley: Generally fair except rain or snow about Wednesday. Temperatures will rise first half of week and remain moderate until week's close.

Great Lake region: Generally fair except for local snows Wednesday and Thursday. Marked change to higher temperatures during first of week, remaining moderate until close.

BELLIGERENTS DO NOT UNDERSTAND 3 POINTS IN NOTE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Dec. 30.—The American government, it became known authoritatively today, believes there are three principal points in its note to the belligerents, and it was surprised that they have not been more clearly understood, particularly by the press of the entente allies.

These points, taken in their order of importance, from the administrative viewpoint are:

"The fear that the position of neutral nations be rendered altogether intolerable if the war continues."

"The suggestion that arrangements be made as a guarantee against similar conflicts in the future."

"The proposal that means be found for comparing the concrete peace terms of both sides."

The last point has aroused most comment, and the first was emphasized by Secretary Lansing's statement afterwards modified, that the United States itself might be drawing near entrance into the war.

The administration, however, it was learned today, thought the suggestion for an arrangement to preserve peace in the future would attract more attention among the entente allies than it apparently has, and furnish a means through which these nations would enter with perfect propriety into a serious peace discussion.

Hungary May Have New Ministry; Count Zichy is Suggested

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Dec. 29, via London, Dec. 30.—Dispatches from Budapest concern themselves more and more with the question of the possible retirement of Premier Tisza. Audiences granted yesterday by the emperor to Count Apponyi, the opposition leader, and to former Premier Kueni-Hedervary tended to strengthen the notion that the position of Count Tisza as Hungarian premier and dominant personality in the dual monarchy was shaky. The same dispatch named Count Zichy as the most prominent candidate for the premiership.

RUMOR UNCONFIRMED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Dec. 30.—Major General Guston, commanding the American forces on the Mexican border, advised the war department today that he had been unable to substantiate rumors that a Felix Diaz filibustering party had crossed into Mexico from the United States.

PROGRESS MADE BY VON MACKENSEN IN EASTERN WALLACHIA AND MOLDAVIA

Russo-Rumanian Forces Unable to Stop Invaders—700 Prisoners and 7 Guns Captured

Events on the European battlefields are summarized from reports from capitals to the Associated Press as follows:

The Russians and Rumanians are fighting a heavy rear guard action as they retire toward the line of the Sereth, in northeastern Wallachia and southern Moldavia.

Today's German army headquarters report shows steady progress for Field Marshal Von Mackensen's armies along the entire front between the Rumanian, Carpathians and Danube, despite the strong resistance they are encountering. At the same time the attack on the Moldavian frontier is developing and Russo-Rumanian positions have been carried and passed by the invaders. Repeated counter-attacks not serving to stop them. In this fighting the Teutonic forces took 660 prisoners and seven machine guns.

The Teutonic advance from the Wallachian plain now lies well to the north of Rinnicki Srat on the railway from Buzeu to Fokshan, while on the right flank a still nearer approach has been made to Braila, the Danube granary which is one of the main objectives of von Mackensen in the present stage of the struggle.

Operations on the Franco-Belgian front have been confined to minor movements except in the Verdun region, where Berlin announces the repulse of several attacks made by the French on the positions on Dead Man Hill of which the Germans recently reported the capture.

There were 75 days during the year in which stock exchange trading exceeded 2,000,000 shares, and on December 21, transactions reached the high-water mark of over 3,000,000 shares.

VALUE OF BONDS SOLD ON 'CHANGE TOTALS A BILLION

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Dec. 30.—Dealings in bonds on the New York stock exchange during the year which closed yesterday totaled a par value of $1,133,203,000 and set a new record. The total in 1915 was $951,798,000. Total dealings in stocks for 1916 were 234,678,000 shares, compared with 173,389,000 in 1915. The year's dealings in stocks have been exceeded only on three previous occasions, in 1901, 1905 and 1906. The record was set in 1906 with 284,965,453 shares.

Federal Examiners Call for Payment of Notes Due Bank

(Associated Press Telegram)
Livingston, O., Dec. 30.—Part of heavy life insurance policies carried by Burton C. Harding, cashier of the First National bank here, will be uncollectible on account of suicide clauses in his policies, it was ascertained today. The policies are for $27,000. E. H. Harding, brother of the dead cashier and Judge E. M. Cries, president of another bank here, have been appointed administrators of Harding's large estate. It consists of several farms and residence properties and stock in industrial and public utility corporations. Federal examiners are calling for payment of notes due the bank. It is expected depositors of the closed bank will be paid in full.

DIXON

Is Sentenced to One Month Under Guard and Fined Two-Thirds of Pay

DRAFTED 'ROUND ROBIN'

Summary Court of Eleventh Division of Border Army Finds Eighth Ohio Soldier Guilty of Starting Document Criticising Camp Conditions—"Non Coms" Retain Rank

(Associated Press Telegram)

El Paso, Dec. 30.—Private Richard Dixon of the Eighth Ohio infantry, was sentenced to confinement in his camp for one month and to forfeit two-thirds of his pay for three months, by the summary court of the 11th provisional division, late yesterday, Brig. Gen. George Bell, Jr., announced today.

Private Dixon was charged with having drafted the "round robin" which was circulated in the Ohio regiment camp and which was signed by 400 members of the regiment, protesting against conditions in the camp.

General Bell said today that Private Dixon would be confined to the tent which serves as a guardhouse at the Eighth Ohio infantry camp, but would be released for drills and other camp duties during the day.

The "round robin" was drafted after the death from pneumonia of Private Rodney Lapp, of the Eighth Ohio infantry. It was reported that Private Lapp had died as the result of being confined in the guardhouse while ill with pneumonia. The protest was intercepted while en route to an Akron newspaper, according to the regimental officers.

An investigation ordered by General Bell resulted in the arrest of Private Dixon and of Private Wilson Murphy, the latter being charged with aiding in the circulation of the petition. The noncommissioned officers who signed it were recommended for demotion to the ranks by General Bell's inspector and a court-martial was recommended by Private Dixon.

When the non-commissioned officers presented a written explanation stating that they thought they were signing a correction of a newspaper article, they were permitted to retain their rank and Private Dixon was ordered tried before the division summary court instead of a general court-martial. Private Murphy was ordered released.

FOND OF PICKLED PIGS FEET GETS NEGRO INTO JAIL

(Associated Press Telegram)

Kansas City, Dec. 30.—Fondness for pickled pigs' feet led to the arrest in Kansas City, Kansas, today of T. Foster, alias Joe Clarke, a negro, who the police say is wanted in McMinnville, Tenn., in connection with the killing of another negro there.

Clarke had just left a restaurant where he had consumed an extra large portion of his favorite dish, when two detectives entered.

"That boy can eat more pigs' feet than anyone I ever saw," said the proprietor to the detectives. The officers remembered receiving a report a few days ago from McMinnville which said that Foster's chief peculiarity was his fondness for pickled pigs' feet, and that he boasted of his ability to consume more of that article of food as one meal, than any negro in Tennessee.

COAL OPERATORS TO ASK COURT AID IN CAR SHORTAGE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 30.—Coal operators of the New River field of West Virginia today planned according to the United States district court for relief from the car shortage which they allege has greatly curtailed operations in their field. The operators allege that the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, the principal outlet of the New River field, is furnishing but one-third of a normal supply of cars and is diverting cars into the classes of traffic more profitable than coal carrying.

SUN WILL HIDE HIS FACE FOUR TIMES IN THE COMING YEAR

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Dec. 30.—Four eclipses of the sun and three of the moon, the greatest number possible in a single year, will occur in 1917, according to a memorandum issued today by the naval observatory. The last year in which seven eclipses came was early in the last century, and the next will be 1935.

On January 8 there will be a total eclipse of the moon by the earth's shadow, visible throughout the United States, beginning at 12:50 a. m. and ending at 4:39 a. m. eastern standard time between 2:00 and 3:29 a. m. eastern time, the eclipse will be total.

The Old and the New.

"Happy New Year!"
This greeting will be given thousands of times on Monday morning in every case the earnest wish of one to another for all the good things that go to make up happiness, peace and contentment. It is more than a formal "good morning," and reflects a kindness that is really felt in the heart of the one who expresses it.

But how many of us look back over the year just closing and honestly say we have had a "happy old year"? That it seems to us, is much more to the point. Has the old year brought to us not only material prosperity, but a realization of duties well performed, a sense of having "fought the good fight," and victory, a consciousness that we have faced our responsibilities without faltering? If we can answer in the affirmative these questions, we have had a truly happy old year, and should today feel a greater strength to look forward with a calm confidence to the coming twelve months.

At the close of 1916 we may profit indulge in retrospection, and introspection. It would be well to take an inventory of the mistakes neglected, overlooked, or unseen, and by this method guard against a repetition in the coming year of any or all.

By an honest glance into our own minds and hearts we may become cognizant of our need for a broader sympathy with mankind, a deeper charity for those who err, a firmer faith in the ultimate wisdom of doing right because it is right. This process of thought will give birth to a desire to do better in the future than in the past, and good resolutions made on Monday upon such a sure foundation, will withstand the storms of temptation and the shock of sudden allurements to evil, with the resistance of adamant.

Betterment along every line should be our constant aim. If we have been wasteful or extravagant during the past year, of either our substance or talents, we should resolve to save and conserve, but also properly direct the expenditure of both.

In whatever sphere, however humble, our usefulness lies, let us rise to the very zenith, and soon it may be that the sphere will be enlarged and an opportunity given for broader, higher endeavor. An old bit of wisdom might well be taken for our motto this coming year:

If I were a cobbler, I'd try with my might,
The very best cobbler to be;

If I were a tinker, no tinker on
Could mend an old kettle like me."

With such an idea of service, the expenditure of energy does not lead to exhaustion, but becomes healthful exercise whether of body, mind or some attributes.

Make good resolutions. This is indicative of at least a spiritual awakening. Do your best to keep these resolutions, which will result in spiritual development.

Have perseverance continue in well doing and spiritual triumph will be your reward.

The Advocate bespeaks for all a "Happy New Year," which in twelve months may be looked back upon as the "Happy Old Year."

Criticism.

The editor's telephone rang last night and a voice at the other end of the wire inquired rather hesitatingly: "Do you care for a little friendly criticism?" An affirmative answer brought forth a suggestion that was appreciated and that will be acted upon.

The Advocate invites criticism and suggestions. We want to know the reader's viewpoint. While it is manifestly impossible to suit everybody or to follow all the advice that is offered, we are always very glad to have our readers express their views because a great many give hints or suggestions that are of real value. Criticism doesn't frighten us a bit. There is only one thing we like better and that is compliment. But for that matter, who doesn't like to receive a compliment?

Nineteen-Seventeen.

The closing of the old year suggests sobering reflections about the passage of time—at least if one has passed his early youth. To young people just starting in life, the passage of a year is a very trifling matter. They wish time away, that they may arrive at some desired goal of age and experience.

As people get into middle life, the days seem to slip along very rapidly. As the common phrase is, it seems but yesterday since 10 or 20 years ago we made this new undertaking. As life proceeds there are fewer red letter days to make particular times stand out. It is one long succession of day's works, more or

Wanted—A Republican Policy.

(Philadelphia Inquirer.)

Efforts to be made by Representative Gardner, of Massachusetts, to bring about a conference of Republican members of the House have our entire sympathy.

The minority in the House has been badly led. Throughout the session preceding the election there was a dismal lack of harmony, with mere fault-finding as the main policy.

A minority that does nothing more than find fault is in a bad way. Unquestionably there was very much in the session to object to, but an objection that carries no constructive plan with it amounts to nothing.

There is sadly needed in Congress an immediate active and assertive policy on the part of the Republican minority in preparation for the important meeting of the 1917 session.

Organizing the New House.

(New York World.)

How to organize a House of Representatives in which neither of the great parties has a majority is the puzzle confronting the Sixty-fifth Congress even now, long before the regular date of assembling.

With a Republican and Democratic membership of 214 and 213 respectively, there are 2 independents, 2 Progressives, 1 Prohibitionist, and 1 Socialist. In two districts no certificate of election has yet issued.

The Representatives of the various minor parties were to act in concert they might name the Speaker and exercise a considerable influence upon the appointment of committees. Success in that case, however, would depend largely upon the wisdom of their leadership, the ability of discordant elements to unite for a common purpose, and the willingness of one or the other of the old parties to make concessions.

More promising of action than any such combination is the situation in the Republican Party itself. Not a few of its Representative-elect are as progressive and independent as the four men who are thus classified.

Those in control of the organization would like to place James R. Mann in the chair, but Mr. Gardner's revolt against him for his pro-Germanism is only a forerunner of more formidable opposition to him as a standpatter. Almost anybody in either Republican faction who could be named for the Speakership would meet the same antagonisms in his own household.

The Democrats will present Champ Clark for re-election with assurance of their united support. After much ill-feeling, log-rolling and delay of public business, it is reasonable to suppose that he will receive enough non-Democratic votes to settle the contest. Some of these may come from Progressives who prefer Mr. Clark to any standpatter; some of them may be cast by unbending members of the Old Guard who prefer him to any Republican Progressive. In family rows of this kind, peaceable neighbors who stay out are likely to be invited in presently.

Budget System for Ohio.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

James M. Cox, governor-elect of Ohio, is quoted as declaring that he will introduce at the beginning of the new administration a state budget system that "will smash the legislative details in Ohio." His proposal is unique in its details, though its purpose is the familiar one of all budget schemes.

Accounting already exists for making estimates for carrying on the business of the state. The governor-elect proposes to take these estimates, bring them into harmony with estimated state receipts and then to go to the legislature himself with the demand that appropriations be kept within the indicated resources.

Such a plan ought to work. It should not, however, be necessary for the governor to take personal charge of such a move. Ohio ought to have a budgetary system that would work without the personal solicitation of the chief executive. It should not be necessary for the governor to go into the legislature with a big stick to prevent lobbyists and pork barrel politicians from raiding the state treasury. If under present laws it is necessary for the governor to do this, more power to him. But, meanwhile, let us look to a day when that kind of duty will not be exacted of Ohio's governors.

Spirit of the Press

Danish West Indies.

The formal transfer of the Danish West Indies to the United States will be made impressive by the parade of the entire Atlantic Fleet off the Harbor of St. Thomas. How many European nations wanting such islands, possessing such a navy and having to deal, as we did, only with Denmark, would not have taken them by might, and main and then bragged of it?—New York World.

National Banks.

Of the 100 largest national banks, New York has 29; Pennsylvania, 16; Missouri, 8; California and Illinois, 7 each, and Ohio, Minnesota and Massachusetts, 5 each. The others are to be found in Colorado, 3; in Texas, Nebraska, Maryland, Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin, 2 each, and in Oklahoma, Alabama, Louisiana, Virginia, Washington, New Jersey and Oregon, 1 each. Comptroller of the Currency Williams properly refers to this showing as evidence of the healthy distribution of wealth and banking resources under the Federal Reserve system.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

American Neutrality.

Hitherto our policy of neutrality has been of necessity negative. We have tried to hold the balance even, to protect the rights of our citizens, and to deal with each invasion of those rights as it arose. The time is coming when a positive policy will be necessary—when it will be imperative that the United States say to all belligerents, "Thus far and no farther, at your peril."—New York World.

Do You Remember

When Newark's city street car service was tied up by the striking of conductors and motormen in September, 1907?

When George Markley, deceased, had a furniture store in the three story building now occupied by Rutledge Bros., and also was one of the leading undertakers of the city?

When John McCarthy had a grocery at the southeast corner of West Main and Fourth streets? It was advertised in 1878 as the oldest grocery in Newark.

When the late Griff Rosebrough had a harness shop in East Main street?

When the late John Garber and Captain J. B. Vance were in partnership in the planing mill business on the canal between Fifth and Sixth streets?

When Oren L. Ingman had a grocery store at the corner of Fifth and Main streets (where Stoltz Bros. cafe now is), in a frame building that now is used as part of the Walter Simpson garage on Main, west of Sixth street?

When H. S. Sprague, in 1878, had a jewelry store in "Palisade Row," said at the time to be the "oldest business house in the city, established in 1829?"

When in 1878 George S. Huff sold his millinery business to Ferd A. Crane and Omar W. Crane, both deceased, who conducted it for many years, in the room now occupied by T. L. Davies' dry goods store?

When the late Michael Bolton and Thomas Lippincott had the only two hair lines in Newark?

When in 1878 the late Allen B. Coffman, afterwards county auditor, was in the undertaking business in Newark?

When the building occupied by the Great Western Clothing store and Stephen's Shoe store was erected? It was during the Brough-Vallandigham campaign and was built for William Shields.

When John Sudbury's shoe shop was located in East Main street, where Chase the photographer, now is? And when Mr. Chase was in the Franklin National Bank building and when Smith the artist now there, was located in the top story of the building that stood where the ten-story Trust building is now located?

That Henry Schneider, superintendent of the Newark and Granville Electric railway, was presented with an elegant chair by the employees 25 years ago tomorrow?

SCROFULA AND ALL HUMORS GIVE WAY

There are many things learned from experience and observation that the older generation should impress upon the younger. Among them is the fact that scrofula and other humors, which produce eczema, boils, pimples and other eruptions, can be most successfully treated with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This great medicine is a peculiar combination of remarkably effective blood-purifying and health-giving roots, barks and herbs, which are gathered especially for it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has stood the test for forty years.

The Advocate's LAUGHING POT

It is vanity to wish for a long life and to take little care of leading a good life.—Thomas a Kempis.

Miss Grouch Made Glad.
Aunt Caline says—Getta Soule has a class in Sunday school of little girls an' so last Sunday a week she says, "Now, girls, the glad Christmas time is coming an' I think it would be fitting for each one of us to strive to make someone happier fer knowin' in us. Make them glad that we are here," she says.

"Now all next week let that be our aim,—to make some one's life happier, an' then next Sabbath we will tell each other about it." So the next Sunday she ast, "Well, have any of you made anyone happier?" An' they didn't nobody say nothing 'ceptin' little Oma Stars an' she held up her hand an' Getta said, "Oh, Oma, I am so glad, dear. Tell us about it." An' Oma she says, "It was Miss Grouch I made happy. She don't like me an' so I didn't go down there," she says.

Next Week's Content.
Come, all ye merry Limerickers, attend now to this gent:
And to his case, we beg of you, be not indifferent.
We do bespeak your sympathy for this repentant man
Who tries to lead a better life the first of every Jan.

Add four illuminating lines to this unfinished list and tell us just exactly what you think of him.
A dollar for the best sent in, as sure as you're alive.
Before six, to the Meeting Pot, on January five:

"I'll resolve, on New Years," said the gent.

NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS.
To The Meeting Pot.
Oh happy holiday! You may be
List to the jolly bells ringing
A merry melody
For the old year that is going
A tender fond adieu,
And welcome notes of greeting
For the coming of the new.

To "Peggy."
The kind hearted Peggy wishes
You sent so pleasantly.
Arrived on Christmas morning
As a welcome gift to me,
And I hope you Miss Peggy,
And those you held most dear.
Will be supremely happy
Through-out the coming year.

To "Willie."
You have proven such a hero
In everything you do.
That I have only praise
Today to offer you.
And it will be a pleasure
While I now contend
If from this time and ever,
You'll let me call you friend.

To "Forget It."
Tha' others may not like you
'Twill ne'er be said that I.
Have used my pen against you,
For know you that in war-fare,
My friend to be concise,
I stand for peace with honor.
But not at any price!

To Aunt Caline.
Tha' you were disappointed
In the present Santa gave,
Of a handsome picture bonnet
On which flowers and ribbon wave,
You're such a dear old darling
One just can't help loving you,
And to wish you many blessings
Is the least your friend can do.

To "All."
To every friend and comrade
The year be far or near,
I send the best of wishes,
With words of bright good cheer!
May prosperity and plenty
Be strewn along your way,
And may your home be happy
On this glad some New Year's day.

Stoolfire—Willard.

Miss Robin Willard and Mr. Henry Stampton Stoolfire of Spokane, Wash., were quietly married Tuesday morning December 19, at 11:30 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Willard, on South Pennine. Rev. Chas. Latshin officiated, the only witnesses being the bride's parents, her brother and sister-in-law, Mr.

and Mrs. Henry Willard, Jr., and little daughter, Frances, and her sister, Mrs. J. A. Gordon, and little daughter, Pauline, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoolfire left during the afternoon for Columbus and will visit the former's parents near Newark until Saturday when they will return here. After spending Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Willard they will go East for a visit with friends in Providence, R. I., and other points, before going to Spokane, where they will be home after January 15.

Mrs. Stoolfire is one of Wellston's most beloved young ladies. She was educated in Eastern boarding schools and is a talented musician, being a splendid pianist and having a beautiful soprano voice, and she has always been most generous in her response to all requests to sing. In addition to her social accomplishments she is an expert needlewoman and a fine housewife and her executive ability and energy have made her services in demand at every public venture. She will be missed, as perhaps no other young lady leaving Wellston, ever has been, by scores of friends in all walks of life, in social circles, and especially in the affairs of the Presbyterian church, where she has held various offices and where her efforts have always been productive of success. Mr. Stoolfire who is a graduate of Ohio State University, is a prominent attorney of Spokane, and in addition, has an extensive fruit ranch and is identified with important mining interests. He is a courteous and cultured gentleman, in every way worthy of his charming bride, whose many friends here extend their best wishes to the happy couple, but are filled with regret that their home is to be at such a distance.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Vermilion entertained at Christmas dinner the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Vermilion, A. B. Vermilion of Cincinnati, H. L. Vermilion of Flora, Ill.; Mrs. Ella Fields, of Marion, Ind.; Mrs. Nellie Ary of Xenia, O.; Mr. E. O. Vermilion, Jr., and family, J. H. Rian and family, Mr. Arley Winice and family, S. W. Vermilion, Mrs. James Hunter.

James H. Watts of Gratiot, O., and Miss Verne M. Weakley of Toledo, O., were married today at high noon at the U. B. parsonage in East Main street by Rev. A. B. Cox. Both are popular young people in the communities where they reside and the newly wedded couple will make their home at Gratiot, where the bridegroom is a prosperous young farmer.

Mrs. Walter Trickey was hostess to the Sesame club at her home in Cedar Crest Friday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated for the holiday season. Everyone present received a lovely gift in a novel way. Buckeyes were given each one in which was a number corresponding with the number of a gift. Two enjoyable contests were held. Mrs. Cloutier and Mrs. Haines winning the prizes and several instrumental selections were given by Mrs. Wilbur Zault and Mrs. Henry Froelich. At the close of the afternoon a delicious luncheon was served. The following were guests of the club: Mrs. Warren Wright, Mrs. Frank Wright, Mrs. G. C. McElwain and Mrs. L. E. Clutter of Chicago Junction.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Courson delightfully entertained at their home in Boylston avenue Thursday evening with a six o'clock dinner honoring Mr. William Courson of Flint, Mich. Covers were laid for the following guests: Mrs. Jennie Courson, Miss Daisy Courson, Miss Helen Diehl, Mr. William Winters, Mr. William Courson.

Miss Ethel Haynes entertained with a charming party at her home in Central avenue on Thursday evening. The following guests were entertained by Miss Haynes: Misses Marie Schaller, Helen Hillier, Nellie Russell, Helen Arbaugh, Mabel Baker, Mary Jones and Ethel Rutledge.

The members of the B. G. club surprised one of the members Miss Violet Coss at her home Friday evening. The hours were devoted to dancing and a dainty luncheon was served the five members of the club. Oscar Clark, Vesta Wilson, Marie Bourner, Hazel Nieble and Violet Coss and the following guests: Messrs. Hugh Conn, Paul Lafave, William Hall, Ralph Coss and Roy Conn of Detroit.

Class No. 5, of the East Main Street U. B. church, met at the home of Mrs. S. L. Courson on Boylston avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The program was as follows: Scripture reading, Paul Dittler; recitation, Wesley Morris; recitation William Walker; song by class, "Merry, Merry Christmas"; recitation, Edwin Scariom. After the closing prayer the afternoon was spent in games. Wesley Morris winning first prize. Dainty refreshments were served to the class members and the following guests, Kenneth Morris and Paul Varner.

Our Boys and Girls

Nature is constantly illustrating her law of moral discipline. When a child falls, he hurts himself, suffers pain, and learns to control his movements. The punishment is the inevitable reaction of the child's action, and natural punishment is the only sort that is efficient.

Effective punishment is to see that the child always suffers the natural consequences of his action, and girls should be treated the same as boys, and there should be no distinction except, perhaps, in the form of such punishment. The boy is naturally more inclined to those forms of naughtiness involving actual disobedience or entailing physical results, than is the girl, and this should always be borne in mind.

Milady's Boudoir

The purpose of the finger nail is to protect the tips of the fingers against pressure and to give them firm support. It is said that they actually add to the facility of the fingers, making more acute the delicate sense of touch. Finger nails are made of the same substances as those which go to form the feathers of birds, the claws of animals and the fins of fish. Healthy nails are not flat, but curved slightly, of light rose color and of smooth surface. Brittleness is a defect which is usually due to a depleted state of the health.

Absolute cleanliness is a hygienic principle which should never be disregarded, since the space between nail and flesh forms a lodgement for disease germs. Soiled nails are not only evidence of contempt for your friends good opinion of you, but they are often the source of infection and sickness.

With a thorough manicure once a week and three minutes' attention every morning the coral tips can be kept in perfect order.

For the home manicure the following instruments are necessary: A pair of pointed scissors, a thin, sharp, flexible file, an orange wood stick, sandpaper, beveling files, a polish, a jar of powdered pumice stone, and a small bottle of peroxide of hydrogen.

The first matter to be considered is the filing, which must be accomplished while the nails are hard. The hands must not be plunged into the soapy bath until after the filing. When using the file see that the flesh at the side of the nail is pressed down, so the instrument will achieve a straight, smooth line, leaving no ragged jagged places on the edge.

A little scarf skin or thick cuticle will cling to the outline of the nail, but that is afterward removed with the beveling file. The shaping depends, of course, upon personal taste.

Every Day Etiquette

"Do you think it proper for a young girl, whose parents object, to break an engagement with a man to attend an entertainment?" asked Mabel.

"The reason should be given the young man and if he is a gentleman he will understand," answered her aunt.

60 CHILDREN TO REPEAT CANTATA SPECIAL REQUEST

Sixty children of the King's Herald of the First M. E. church will repeat the cantata, "Down the Chimney With Santa Claus," at the First M. E. church Sunday afternoon. The entertainment is repeated by request because of the desire of many who could not be present a week ago, to hear the songs and recitations.

LOCAL WEATHER

The mercury, which has been slowly receding to the bulb at the bottom of the tube, reached the 14 degree point last midnight, which was about the coldest since the severe weather last week. The air was crisp and bracing and lovers of winter certain footing caused by the glare of ice which covers sidewalks in most of the residential districts. There was a noticeable weakness of the gas pressure at supertime Friday night but a "rally" followed and by 9 o'clock the pressure was again normal. Fair and warmer weather is promised for tomorrow. The Washington weather bureau's prediction for next week indicates warmer temperature all week with snow about Wednesday.

Austria replied to the American note of Dec. 19, relating to the sinking of the Ancona, reiterating that the sinking occurred an hour and a half after the vessel had stopped and declaring that the loss of life was due to panic; for not taking into consideration the panic the submarine commander had been punished.

The British cruiser Natal destroyed by an internal explosion while at anchor in port; 325 of the crew lost their lives.

British passenger steamer Persia submerged in the Mediterranean near Alexandria, Egypt; 330 of the passengers and crew, including an American consular official (McNeely), lost their lives; 165 escaped.

Two Years Ago Today.

German aeroplane dropped bombs on Dunkirk, France; forty-seven casualties, with fifteen deaths. French troops captured German position in the Woerre district.

CONWAY'S BAND.

Conway's Band gives brilliant renditions of the dashing "American Trumpeter March" and the no less spirited "All American March" for the Victoria. This organization also plays in excellent style the graceful "Pastoral Dance" and the more spirited "Merry-makers Dance" from Nell Gwyn. Two numbers from George's Peer Gint Suite are likely to be recorded by Vessella's Italian Band—the lovely "Morning" which is typically Greek, and "The Death of Aeneas" one of the most tensely moving dirges in the whole realm of music. The Victor Concert Orchestra plays two medleys of "Pinafore" selections and the old tunes are as sparkling as ever.

CUSTOMS OFFICERS SEIZE GOWNS OF MRS. W. E. COREY

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Gowns valued at $500, the property of Mrs. William Ellis Corey, wife of the president of the Midvale Steel Company and former president of the United States Steel Corporation, were formally seized by the customs authorities here today, pending a decision as to the federal action on the ground that the clothing was not declared for import duty upon her arrival on Thursday from France. Mrs. Corey, formerly Mabelle Gilman, an actress, after hearing today explained a mistake had been made. The gowns were found in the trunk of a companion, Mrs. Corey said they were packed there by a maid without the owners' knowledge upon departing from London for Paris, where Mrs. Corey visited her chateau.

VILLA ADVANCING ON CHIHUAHUA WITH 10,000 MEN

EL PASO, Dec. 30.—Federal agents today sent a report to Washington saying that Villa was at Jimenez and was advancing on Chihuahua City with approximately 10,000 troops. It was also said by the federal agents that General Francisco Argueta was reported to be making preparations to evacuate the state capital.

No Strike Expected Monday; Stone Says No Letter is Issued

CLEVELAND, Dec. 30.—Warren S. Stone and W. G. Lee, heads of the railway engineers and railway trainmen brotherhoods, respectively, arrived in Cleveland today following the rejection of the brotherhoods' demand by the managers' committee that the Adamson law be placed in effect Jan. 1. "It is highly improbable that there will be a strike Monday," Stone said. He declared the report that a circular letter had been sent to railway employees, asking for a removal of the authority to call a general strike were untrue.

HOPE FOR PEACE IS REMOTE SAYS BERLIN EDITOR

BERLIN, Dec. 29.—The Berlin local Anzeiger has become pessimistic over the prospects of peace, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. The dispatch quotes the Friday issue of the paper as saying: "As the result of information received in well informed political circles we have the impression that the hope of speedy peace becomes more remote. The feeling in leading circles in the belligerent capitals is too plain and too mistaken concerning the intentions of the central powers, is possible."

HOPES FOR PEACE
BERLIN, Dec. 29.—Via London, Dec. 30.—Budapest dispatches quote Emperor Charles as saying to Count Julius Andrássy during the reception yesterday: "Our enemies are finally commencing to understand that they cannot conquer us. I have therefore reason to hope that the loyal efforts of the central powers have brought us nearer to peace."

NOMINATION OF CHARTER COMMISSIONERS

At the meeting of the Citizens' Efficient Government League held Friday evening, the executive committee reported and recommended the names of fifteen citizens who were thereupon unanimously chosen to serve as candidates for the Commission to write a charter for the city of Newark. The Charter Election is set for Tuesday, March 13, 1917. The question of a new charter for Newark will be decided on a separate ballot and at the same election there will be chosen by means of another ballot those men who shall write the charter for the city if that proposition be endorsed by a majority of the voters. The candidates nominated are Edward Kibler, Sr., Walter C. Metz, William E. Miller, John M. Mitchell, John C. McKivier, Fred J. Rall, Jr., S. O. Riggs, Edward L. Schnaidt, William H. Smith, Albert A. Stangl, Edward M. Street, Wilson Harkins, Philip W. Jones, Roderic Jones and Ernest T. Johnson.

These men as picked by the executive committee were only chosen after long and careful deliberation. Great care was taken to get men who are strictly representative in every way, and a careful survey of the list submitted will show that the candidates are men of all the political parties creeds and vocations. Every ward in the city has a representative in this list of candidates which the Citizens' Efficient Government League endorses.

Of course, other candidates can be nominated by the filing of the proper petitions, but since the movement for a new charter has been fostered and worked into activity by the Citizens' Efficient Government League, which is composed of careful and conservative business-like men who have omitted no detail in throwing around this movement all the precautions that should eliminate the abuses that the city has and is suffering from, it feels that its candidates should be also endorsed by the public, as it is further pointed out that the men chosen are pledged upon entering this candidacy, to lay aside all partisanship and devote their activities, and without remuneration, to writing a charter for Newark which will engender an efficient business organization that will make each dollar of the funds of the city get a dollar's worth of good results or know the reason why.

L. & N. EMBARGO AGAINST STATE CONGESTION GREAT

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 30.—An announcement was made today of an embargo by the Louisville and Nashville railroad, effective Sunday, upon all classes of freight, excluding livestock, perishables, and coal for public utility plants, moving through Louisville and Cincinnati, destined for points in Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and all Atlantic seaboard states.

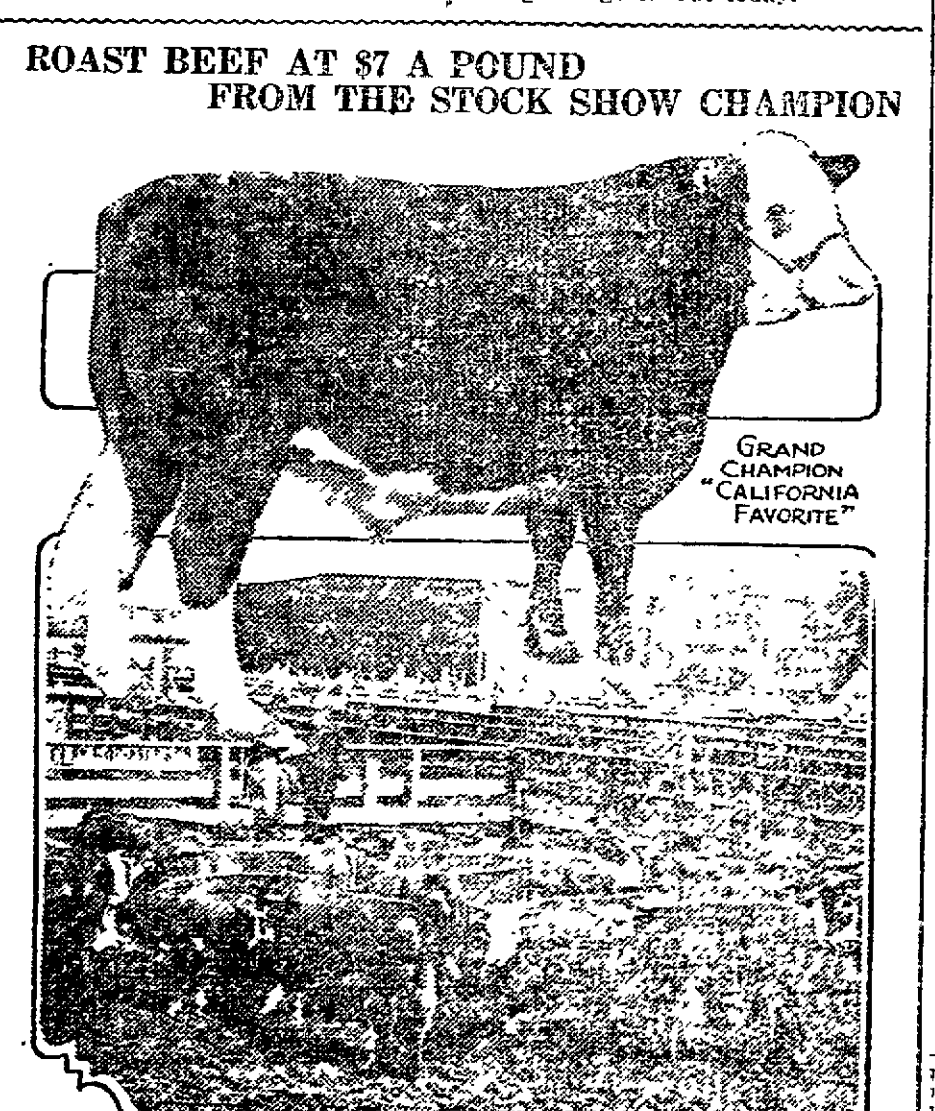

It is said the purpose of this action is to furnish relief for congestion at the terminals named. It is said the Louisville and Nashville is now holding 2,000 loaded cars because connecting lines operating to the east have refused to accept them for transit until their own lines were cleared.

CLEVELAND'S LARGEST
CLEVELAND, Dec. 30.—Bank clearances in 1916 were the largest in the history of Cleveland. The total amounted to $2,473,000,000. This is the first time the two billion mark has been passed and represents an increase of nearly one hundred per cent over 1914. The year's clearings compared with a total of $1,511,000,000 in 1916 and $1,237,000,000 in 1914.

DENMARK'S REPLY RECEIVED
WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Denmark's reply to President Wilson's peace proposals were received today by the state department. It agrees with that of Norway presented yesterday. The official copy of the Swedish note also reached the department today, being similar in terms to those from Norway and Denmark previously received.

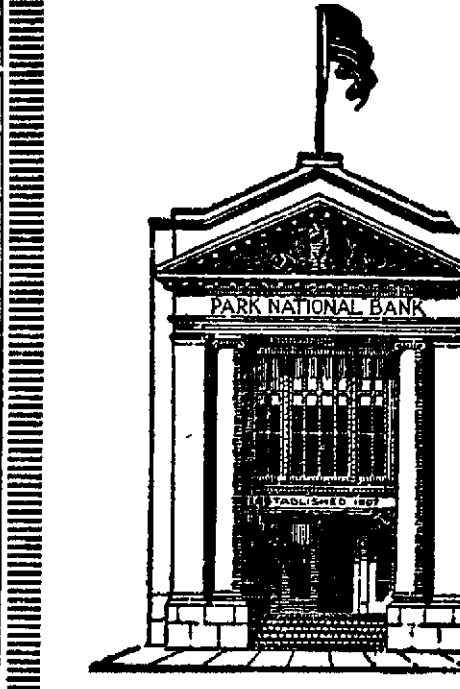

WOULD MERGE M.L. TEMPERANCE FORCES.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 30.—The heads of five anti-liquor organizations conferred here today relative to a proposition to merge all prohibition bodies in the United States into one national party whose principal object would be to carry on the fight for nation-wide prohibition.

ROAST BEEF AT $7 A POUND FROM THE STOCK SHOW CHAMPION

When the grand champion steer, but Mose Greenwood for a Detroit house added his defiant nicker after a round with a red bull, $17.5 a pound, sold, shouted the auctioneer. Wires went to the automobile city to prepare to parade the grand champion bought at a price of $1,960. For Christmas rib roasts that is a fabulous figure. Not a kernel of corn had been fed to this California champion—no other grain than barley. In breeding it was a Hereford sire by a Short-stood open-eyed while the bidding, started at 5 cents a pound, jumped to $1.00 a pound. The sale was made for best calf ever shown on the continent. The University of California by Clay, sent, was the claim by the head of Robinson & Company in just nine minutes. Chicago packers bid high, tribute to McDonald.

JAPAN WOULD TAKE PHILIPPINES IF U. S. WITHDRAWS

CINCINNATI, Dec. 30.—"If the United States withdrew from the Philippines, will there be any guarantee against the seizure of the islands by another nation? I am afraid not." This was a statement made by James A. Robertson of Washington who spoke at the closing session of the American Historical Association here today. "I can't believe that the Japanese government notwithstanding certain public utterances is desirous of annexing the islands as Japanese interests lie to the north and northwest. But I am certain that Japanese interests would demand the occupation of the Philippines in case of withdrawal by the United States for no other reason than to forestall their occupation by another nation."

FRANKLIN

The schools of this place reopen Tuesday after a week's vacation. Mr. L. B. Wilson and W. M. Millholland of Newark were out at the Wilson farm Thursday assisting in the butchering festivities.

Miss Grace Walters, teacher of the Pleasant Ridge school is spending her holiday season with friends in Summit Station and Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gregg of Hazel Dell have been visiting with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hazlett here this week.

Quite a number from this section were in attendance at the recent State Grange meeting held in Newark and were shown through the mysteries of the sixth degree.

The annual installation of officers of Franklin Grange will be held Thursday evening, January 4. A well known Licking county educator has been secured to install the officers and a full turnout of the members is desired. The evening exercises will conclude with a banquet.

NAVY PLANES IN FLIGHT.

Hempstead, N. Y., Dec. 30.—A flight to the League Island navy yard at Philadelphia was begun here today by United States Army officers and civilians in 12 airplanes. Some of the machines carried passengers. The aviators plan to make the return journey tomorrow.

AKRON FIRM'S GIFT.

Akron, Dec. 30.—The Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. yesterday announced a New Year's gift of $10,000 to its employees. The gift will be in the form of common stock of the company. It will be sold to the employees at $100 a share, $40 less than the market price. Employees will be allowed five years to pay for it.

USEFUL GASOLINE ONCE DESPISED

It is interesting to note how a despised and perhaps, for the time, a harmful byproduct may develop into the chief product of an industry and a shortage seriously affect the general comfort and economy of our lives.

Just now gasoline is an everyday example. In the time of the early coal oil lamp many dangers lurked in the poorly refined oil, and every effort was made to increase the yield of high flash kerosene and remove for this reason gasoline from the oil. This gasoline was then little more than a waste product, to be disposed of when possible or thrown away and allowed to evaporate or even run into the rivers with the resulting danger of fire. Now all is changed, and the utmost effort of the chemist and engineer is called for to devise means of increasing the yield of this despised byproduct at the expense of the higher boiling fractions in the crude oil.—Metallurgical and Chemical Engineering

SCANDINAVIAN PEACE NOTE.

BERLIN, Dec. 30.—The German official press today said that the Swedish minister in Berlin and the Swedish and Danish legations in Berlin were the first to receive the document. The text agreed without amendment with the Scandinavian press.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

Christmas week at the association has been a very quiet time. Most of the girls at the association residence have left for the holidays at their various homes out of the city. All classes are enjoying the mid-winter recess.

The young women of the residence entertained their gentlemen friends with a delightful Christmas party in the gymnasium before the holidays. There was a Christmas tree, with an amusing gift for each person present. Games were played and delightful refreshments served. The Polyanna club at its last regular meeting had a delightful surprise Christmas tree and a number of beautiful gifts. The association was remembered in a number of beautiful ways. Christmas season. A two years subscription to Everybody's magazine and one year's subscription to the Delineator added materially to the raising fund.

The association desires on the threshold of a new year to wish the entire membership the very happiest New Year it has ever had, and to thank all for their loyalty and co-operation at all times. Thursday evening, January 3, at 7:30 o'clock, the first social gathering of the New Year will be held at the association rooms for all members over 18 years of age and their friends. An interesting and amusing program is being planned. On Friday evening, January 5, at seven o'clock, the association will be thrown open to the girls under 18 years of age and their friends.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Tonight is the last of the Saturday night contests. At present two men are tied for first place and the second man is only two points behind and he is followed by number three with only one point less.

Regular gym work starts again Monday. Best results in physical training are obtained by consistent and regular attendance so we want every one who will be back in class as soon as possible. The members of the winning team in the intermediate B class basketball tournament will each be presented with one of the Y. M. C. A. lapel buttons at their next class period.

Lester Gardner, director in the Pittsburgh, Pa., play grounds system, has spent the week with his parents in "the city and has been in the gym several afternoons and evenings. His brother Charles Gardner has been here from Toledo and has visited the gym also. Both of these boys grew up in the local gymnasium. The lunch counter will resume operations again on New Year's day. The building will be open as usual on this day and a place will be afforded to members for meeting and wishing their friends a happy new year. On the eve of the new year the officers of the association want to extend to all the members and friends of the association the usual new years greeting and wish them much success in every way for the coming year.

Dave Pearce now in Boston Technical Institute has sent the seasons greeting to the association boys. The Junior boys Bible class will meet Tuesday at 5:30 o'clock. At this time the prizes will be awarded for the new membership contest which closed on last Monday.

Watch Meeting at First Church

As has been their custom for a number of years the Y. M. C. A. of the First Presbyterian church will observe "Watch Night" and usher in the New Year with an appropriate and attractive program. The program will immediately follow the regular evening preaching service. At 10 o'clock the choir will render the cantata "The Holy Infant."

Mission Rally Will Use Pictures To Explain Work

A Foreign Missionary rally will be held in the Central Christian church of this city on Friday, January 5th. A Foreign Missionary rally is a unique service. The basis of the church building will be covered with maps and charts. There will be a supply of the latest and best literature on the subject. This rally will be under the auspices of the Foreign Society of the Disciples of Christ. Rev. W. H. Hanna, of the Philippines, will be in charge. Two other missionaries will be with him and will speak of the work in their fields. A number of ministers from the surrounding country will be present and several will participate in the exercises. All of the churches within reach are invited to send delegations. The whole non-Christian world is now awake and is more ready to receive the Christian religion than before.

The services will begin at ten o'clock. There will be no admittance fee and no cash pledges or cash offerings. All who can attend will be welcome. Those who cannot attend all day can attend a part of the time.

W. C. T. U.

The Frances Willard W. C. T. U. held their regular meeting Wednesday night at the New York avenue A. E. church. Mrs. Simpson lead the devotional services and Mrs. Hall her regular Bible study.

The program for the afternoon consisted of a report from the national W. C. T. U. convention in Indiana, held Thursday. This was the 18th annual convention and the most successful one ever held.

The delegates, Willard, gave an excellent report. The Anti-Saloon league will hold its annual national convention in Columbus, Jan. 16-18. Mrs. King and Mrs. Ellen Faulsen were elected to go as delegates.

THE LODGES.

L. O. T. M.
Newark Review No. 44, Women's Benefit Association of Mechanics met Thursday. The next meeting will be held Jan. 11. The social committee will have a surprise for all who attend.

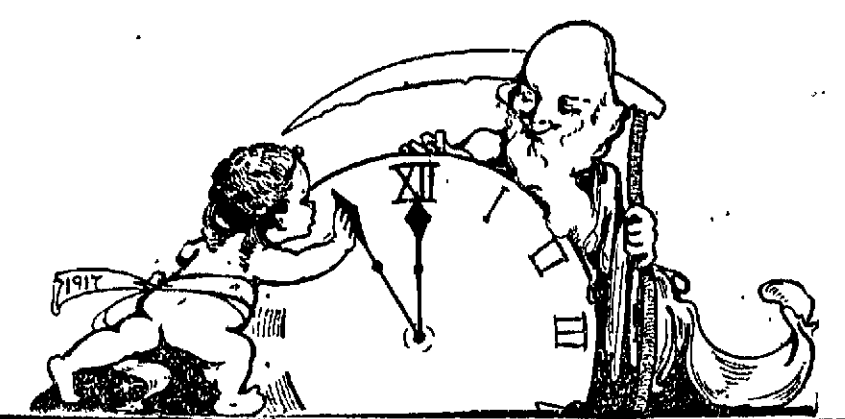

Newark K. of P.
A very good crowd greeted the chancellor commander on Thursday evening and the meeting throughout was interesting.

The relief committee reports the sick members improving. There was no degree work on for this meeting, but general matters of importance were discussed. Twenty-one new applications were read and conferred in the proper committee. Next Thursday evening the officers elect will be installed. The entertainment to be held January 18 promises to be great.

RED MEN.
Minnequa Tribe No. 32 met this week with a large attendance of the chiefs. While there are many members on the sick list all were reported as improving. The chiefs to be installed next Friday night are:

Prophet—W. Butler.
Sachem—W. Moore.
Senior Sachem—H. Hirt.
Junior Sachem—W. H. Johnson.
Treasurer—C. J. Fisher.
Chief of Records—E. C. Richardson.
Collector of Wampum—J. P. Baker.
Keeper of Wampum—E. Helver.
S. R. Caffee and Henry Beckman were elected delegates to the great council of the Red Men in New York City. The first week in May. Three applications for membership were presented. On Friday, January 5, there were seven candidates for initiation. A general report of the condition of the tribe for the past year will be given.
